ABSTRACT:
The Minnesota Synod Minutes and Reports collection contains the published minutes, bulletin of reports, and some supplements to the bulletins of reports from the Synod' annual conventions. Included in the minute books and bulletins of reports are directories, necrologies, convention agendas and programs, financial reports, elections, reports from various committees and affiliated church bodies, and congregational reports.

HISTORICAL NOTE:
The Minnesota Synod was created in 1962 with the consolidation of The Lutheran Minnesota Conference of the Augustana Evangelical Lutheran Church and The English Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Northwest. According to the Synod's constitution "The territory of the Synod shall be that part of Minnesota which is bounded on the north and west by the northern and western boundary lines of Lac Qui Parle, Swift, Pope, Stearns, Morrison, Cass, Itasca, and Koochiching counties."* The Minnesota Synod was part of the Lutheran Church in America, which was created in 1962 and existed until 1987 when the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America was created.
