

Health and Exercise Science: Athletic Training Education Program Director and Assistant/Associate Professor

Gustavus Adolphus College invites nominations and applications for a tenure-track faculty position that includes the program directorship of our Athletic Training Education Program (ATEP) in the Department of Health and Exercise Science. The position begins September 1, 2009.

The successful candidate must be a BOC-certified athletic trainer and hold or be eligible for Minnesota state registration and have 5 years of administrative leadership experience in an athletic training program (including experience with CAATE accreditation), an earned doctorate in athletic training or related field, and undergraduate teaching experience. Preference will be given to candidates who have taught ATEP theory and methods courses and anatomy/physiology lectures and laboratory. Preference will also be given to candidates who can be appointed at the Associate Professor level (PhD + administrative experience in athletic training). However, candidates at the Assistant Professor level will be considered (ABD + 10 years athletic training experience, much of it in an administrative capacity).

Primary responsibilities include providing leadership and coordination within the Athletic Training Education Program, working effectively with the Clinical Education Coordinator and Clinical Athletic Training staff, continuation of CAATE accreditation, instruction of undergraduate theory courses within the ATEP, and human anatomy and physiology lectures and labs. As a member of the faculty, the successful candidate will advise and supervise undergraduate students, pursue scholarly interests, and participate in professional, college, and community service. Previous academic experience with diverse populations is highly desirable.

To apply, send letter of application, curriculum vitae, transcripts (unofficial acceptable), statements of teaching philosophy and research interests, and letters of recommendation including the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses for three to five professional references to:
