

HOW DOES MUSIC EDUCATION AFFECT STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT IN OTHER AREAS?

I. Students who study music generally do better in other academic areas

- A. standardized tests
- B. mathematics
- C. reading
- D. Let's look at some studies!
- E. Gardner's multiple intelligences

II.

Studying and listening to music can improve student self-esteem and confidence

- A. What do the experts have to say about this?
- B. positive self-esteem is important for our general health and well-being

III. Music study is imperative at an early age, as it stimulates the growth of brain structures and neural connections

- A. every human is born with a certain aptitude for music
- B. music education causes students to use both the right and left hemisphere of the brain
- C. music learning starts at the prenatal stage
- D. Check this out!

IV. Music provides students with a healthy outlet for creativity and expression

- A. self-identity
- B. communication of feelings
- C. source of healing
- D. Check out this website!

Notes

Treble clef