

Humanities, Careers, & Alums

Free Student Lunch!

Advising Day - Wed., Nov. 13, 12:00-1:00pm (Three Crowns Room)

Ingrid Nyholm-Lange ('91)

Scandinavian Studies / History

Chief Operating Officer - American Swedish Institute

"My majors provided me with a deep understanding of Nordic culture and historical insights, which have been instrumental in leading and shaping the growth of the American Swedish Institute."

Most memorable course:

Too many...how can I choose just one?!

Amy Riegelman ('04)

History / Philosophy minor

Social Sciences and Evidence Synthesis Librarian - Univ. of Minn.

"My education in the Humanities has helped me advocate for marginalized voices in secondary research and to think critically about Librarianship (e.g., antiquated and offensive subject headings)."

Most memorable course: U.S. Radicalism (History, Greg Kaster),
Racism & Sexism (Philosophy, Lisa Heldke)

Jessica Strobush ('21)

History / Social Studies Education

Private School English & History Teacher - Fusion Academy

"My majors strengthened my ability to consider multiple perspectives on an issue and synthesize information from a variety of sources."

Most memorable course: HIS-200 History Seminar

Maddie Sandish ('22)

French / Gender, Women, and Sexuality Studies

Software Engineer - SPS Commerce

"My humanities majors developed my ability to deeply engage diverse perspectives, translate between differing viewpoints, and articulate my values; these skills make me a pillar of my team."

Most memorable course: GWS-380: Feminism, Trauma & Testimony

HUMANITIES
ENDOWMENT