NCAA Championship Game Notes

Gusties Will Face UW-Stout in National Semifinals

The Gustavus men's hockey team will face the University of Wisconsin-Stout in the NCAA Division III Men's Hockey Championship semifinals on Friday, March 20 at 4 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time) at Herb Brooks Arena in Lake Placid, New York. Gustavus advanced to this year's Frozen Four with a 2-0 win over UW-Superior in Superior, Wis. last Saturday night, while UW-Stout advanced by defeating St. Scholastica 2-1 at home last Saturday night. The Gusties enter the weekend with an overall record of 18-10-0, while the Blue Devils are 23-5-2. The winner of the Gustavus/UW-Stout semifinal will play the winner of the Neumann/Hobart semifinal on Saturday at 5 p.m. EST in the national championship game.

Head Coach Brett Petersen:

Gustavus Adolphus coach Brett Petersen is the second-winningest coach in program history with a career record of 112-108-16 in his ninth season with the Gusties. This season he guided Gustavus to its first MIAC Playoff title since 1993 and its first appearance in the NCAA Semifinals since 1982. Petersen was named the MIAC Coach of the Year in 2002.

Scouting the Blue Devils

UW-Stout, the second-ranked team in Division III by USCHO.com, received an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament after defeating UW-Superior 4-3 in the NCHA Playoff Championship. The Blue Devils defeated St. Scholastica 2-1 at home in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Tournament last Saturday night. UW-Stout is in the midst of a 15-game unbeaten streak and has not lost since January 9 when it lost to Concordia-Moorhead 4-1. The Blue Devils are led by All-NCHA junior forward Derek Hanson, who has compiled 17 goals and 26 assists for 43 points. Senior Matt Koenig has been strong in the nets for UW-Stout as he has posted a mark of 21-4-2 with a 2.39 GAA and a .924 save percentage. This is the second appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the Blue Devils who lost to St. Thomas 4-1 in the first round last year.

This will be the Gusties' sixth appearance in the NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament. Gustavus has compiled a record of 4-6-2 in its previous five appearances after making two trips to the NCAA Division II/III Tournament in 1982 and 1983 and three trips to the NCAA Division III Tournament in 1990, 1991, and 1993.
