

Andrew Evenson, JD

aevenson1@gustavus.edu

Andrew bridges the gap between complex tax law and real-world application, combining over nine years as a transfer pricing specialist with experience as a practicing attorney and accounting educator.

Gustavus Adolphus College

Instructor of the Practice – Business and Economics Department (January 2025 – Present)

Brings private-sector experience into the classroom, translating abstract concepts into engaging, practical financial literacy lessons that make tax concepts come alive. Courses taught include Individual Federal Taxation, Entity Federal Taxation, Managerial Accounting, Financial Accounting, and Personal Finance for Everyone.

Grant Thornton LLP

Transfer Pricing Experienced Manager (June 2015 – October 2025)

Managed teams who prepared U.S. and global documentation; benchmarking; and recommendations to clients in response to current and developing global transfer pricing regulations.

CJB Law, PLLC

Associate Attorney (March 2013 – May 2015); Legal Intern (May 2010 – August 2010)

Focused on finding solutions to legal matters relating to Tax Law, Corporate Law, Insurance Defense, Real Estate Law, Estate and Trust Administration, Bankruptcy, and Civil Litigation. Provided legal assistance to clients in matters relating to Municipal Law, Township Law, Drainage and Water Law, Personal Injury, Criminal Law, and Family Law.

The Aurora Group, Inc.

Counsel/Accountant (November 2012 – March 2013)

Prepared financial statements and reports, while also providing legal advice.

Becker County Attorney

Legal Intern (May 2011 – August 2011)

Responsible for drafting criminal complaints, researching legal issues, drafting memoranda, drafting trial and appellate court briefs and other pleadings, and trial preparation.

Lurie LLP

Tax Accounting Intern (January 2008 – April 2008)

Worked as an intern preparing tax returns for individuals and businesses.

Education

Juris Doctor, William Mitchell College of Law, May 2012

Bachelor of Arts, Accounting (Minor in History), Gustavus Adolphus College, magna cum laude, May 2009

Professional Qualifications and Memberships

Licensed Attorney, Minnesota

International Experience

While at Gustavus Adolphus College, studied abroad for four months in Germany - studying language, culture, religion, art, and history in several German cities. Lived with a host family for one month in Wittenberg.

Personal Interests

Golf (Assistant Golf Coach at Gustavus), Basketball (Minnesota Timberwolves), and Faith (Twin Cities Church)