

LOOKING FOR A JOB WHERE YOU CAN MAKE A GOOD INCOME, HAVE FUN, HAVE FLEXIBILITY TO PREPARE FOR GRAD SCHOOL, AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS?

Young man with developmental disabilities seeks a person to assist him with activities of daily living, job coaching, and recreational | social activities. His disability is Angelman Syndrome. He needs help in his St. Paul Crocus Hill home, and in community settings. Duties include taking him on outings, social activities with friends, bike rides, walks and swimming. Days are busy, active and engaging as he participates daily in Highland Friendship Club activities (see their website and Facebook page). Position includes working on developing independence in all settings and facilitating communication skills.

Ideal candidate is a person with career plans in medicine, special education, community integration, physical and occupational therapy, or similar fields.

Prior experience is a plus although kindness, caring, compassion and a quick study are the most important qualities for the position. Must be responsible, dependable, energetic, attentive and safety conscious. Must be able to make a one year commitment to the position. Excellent pay and flexible hours. Full time and part time positions available.
