APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

In addition to this application for admission, please submit the following to be considered for admission to Gustavus Adolphus College:

- Academic record (official transcripts of secondary school and any university you have attended, indicating courses taken and grades earned). Please also provide documentation of the courses in which you are currently enrolled.

- TOEFL score report (minimum 80 iBT, 213 computer, 550 paper) or IELTS score report (minimum 7.0). The Gustavus Adolphus College institutional code for the TOEFL exam is 6253. The TOEFL or IELTS exam is not required if English is your native language and your education has been primarily in English.

- Three recommendations. Recommendations may be from teachers, faculty, principal, advisor, or coach. Please use the Gustavus “International Student Recommendation Form.” In addition, you may also include written letters of recommendation. Recommendations should be sent directly to Jeff Anderson, Center for International and Cultural Education, Gustavus Adolphus College.

- International student financial aid application (if you wish to apply for Gustavus financial assistance).

- Financial documents verifying the amount of funding available for your education. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, bank statements (from the last three months), statement of income from employers, evidence of assets, and a letter from your sponsor. U.S. immigration law requires documentation of funding prior to issuance of an I-20.

- You may submit SAT or ACT scores, but they are not required.

To be considered for fall semester admission, we should receive all of the above before March 1. To be considered for spring semester admission, we should receive all of the above before October 1.

Please submit this application and all supporting documents to:

Jeff Anderson
Center for International and Cultural Education
Gustavus Adolphus College
