Gustavus Adolphus College Honor Code

A Gustavus Adolphus College Honor Code was developed spring 2002. It has been approved by both the Student Senate and the faculty and went into effect the fall semester of 2003. Every Gustavus student is required to agree to abide by the code.

You will be registered for classes only after agreeing to abide by the code. Students on campus agreed to abide by the code when they registered for classes online.

By requesting to enroll as a student at Gustavus, you are agreeing to abide by the following Gustavus Honor Code:

HONOR CODE

“As a community of scholars, the faculty and students of Gustavus Adolphus College have formulated an academic honesty policy and honor code system, which is printed in the Academic Bulletin and the Gustavus Guide. As a student at Gustavus Adolphus College I agree to uphold the honor code. This means that I will abide by the academic honesty policy, and abide by decisions of the joint student/faculty Honor Board.”

HONOR PLEDGE

“How my honor, I pledge that I have not given, received, or tolerated others’ use of unauthorized aid in completing this work.”

I agree to accept the Gustavus Adolphus College Honor Code.
