

How to Successfully Design & Implement Community-Based Learning

Faculty Development Workshop

This “hands-on” workshop is designed to support faculty NEW to CBL, as well as experienced practitioners who want to refine and hone their skills and competencies. The workshop will provide faculty participants with step-by-step strategies, tangible resources, and easy-to-use tools for designing and implementing a successful community-based learning component to a chosen course.

Monday Feb. 1, 2016 – 12:00 –4:00 PM (Lunch provided)

Tuesday Feb. 2, 2016 – 8:00 AM – 4:00 PM – (Breakfast & Lunch provided)

President’s Dining Room, Jackson Campus Center, Gustavus

You will learn to:

- ✓ Utilize CBL Course Design & Development Strategies.
- ✓ Construct civically-engaged course learning objectives.
- ✓ Construct a SYLLABUS conducive to community-based learning.
- ✓ Identify meaningful and relevant experience.
- ✓ Design integrated assignments and reflective learning strategies.
- ✓ Identify and manage potential risk factors.
- ✓ Leverage support for logistics, coordination, and travel.
- ✓ Assess student learning and community outcomes.
- ✓ And more.

You will take away:

- ✓ A strategy for course development and implementation.
- ✓ A set of comprehensive learning objectives for CBL.
- ✓ Supportive additions to your course SYLLABUS.
- ✓ Resources for finding and identifying community organizations.
- ✓ Examples of assignments and reflective learning activities.
- ✓ Grading rubrics and strategies for assessing student learning.
- ✓ Access to assessment tools and support for data analysis.
- ✓ Knowledge of how to best leverage the resources available through the Center for CBSL.
- ✓ And more.

Registration: All continuing faculty are welcome to register for the workshop. Participation is limited to 10 faculty. In the event that registration exceeds 10, the Center for CBSL will either find support for additional participants OR select the 10 registrants from the broadest representation of departments and interdisciplinary programs. REGISTER ONLINE NOW AT: <https://gustavus.edu/forms/cbl-workshop-register>.

Stipend & Support: Each faculty participant (up to ten) will receive a stipend of $150 for full participation. Lunches, breakfast, and snacks are included. Supplemental trainers will be utilized and supportive didactic materials provided.

Questions: General questions and inquiries regarding the workshop may be directed to Jeffrey Rathlef, Director for Community-Based Service and Learning, jrathlef@gustavus.edu, X6011.