

LAY LOW PHASE

January 31–February 14, 2021
and when announced

Areas below change during Lay Low Phase. All other COVID expectations remain the same.

GENERAL INFO

- Students (on- and off-campus) and employees should stop in-person social activities and move group work and meetings to a virtual format.
- Athletic and Fine Arts groups may request to continue and will be subject to more stringent guidelines dictating practices/rehearsals and may be required to stop all activities due to COVID-19 cases.
- Recognized student groups and organizations as well as informal groups will cease all in-person activities and transition to a virtual format.
- Courses (with few exceptions) will be delivered in online formats.
- One (1) person in a room to study.

VISITORS

- No off-campus visitors are allowed on campus.
- Students will only have access to their own residence halls.
- Only the occupants of your assigned residence hall space may be present in your room/suite/apartment. No other Gusties or visitors may be in your assigned space at any time.

STANDARD COVID CONDITIONS PHASE

All other COVID expectations remain the same.

GENERAL INFO

- Meetings and gatherings may happen when face coverings are worn and with appropriate physical distancing. Groups of more than 20 people must complete a COVID safety plan.
- Recognized student groups and organizations as well as informal groups may meet.
- Courses will be delivered in the format determined by the faculty member.
- Study spaces open to the posted room capacity and occupants keeping physical distance.

VISITORS

- Registered guests are welcome to visit campus in public buildings or outside areas. You can register your guests at the COVID website.
- Students may visit other residence halls when hosted by a student who lives in that building.
- Off-campus visitors are NOT allowed in residence halls.
