A Celebration of Christmas during the 500th year of the Reformation

Christmas in Christ Chapel 2017

Welcome

to Christmas in Christ Chapel as we celebrate the 500th year of the Reformation.

It has been ingrained in me since childhood that the Reformation is more than a one-time event that happened 500 years ago and more than recognition of one person named Martin Luther. My father was a Lutheran pastor and later served as bishop of one of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America (ELCA) synods in Pennsylvania.

Growing up, I was witness to the reforming of the Church both from my seat in the choir loft and from my chair around the kitchen table. Due to my father's position in the synod office, I was surrounded by the conversations and the people who were creating and implementing a vision for a new Lutheran Church, now called the ELCA.

Even if you were not like me, growing up singing in the church choir, I hope you find delight in the splendor and majesty of the Lutheran worship and liturgy in this service. I also trust you will enjoy the beautiful music of classic and contemporary Lutheran composers.

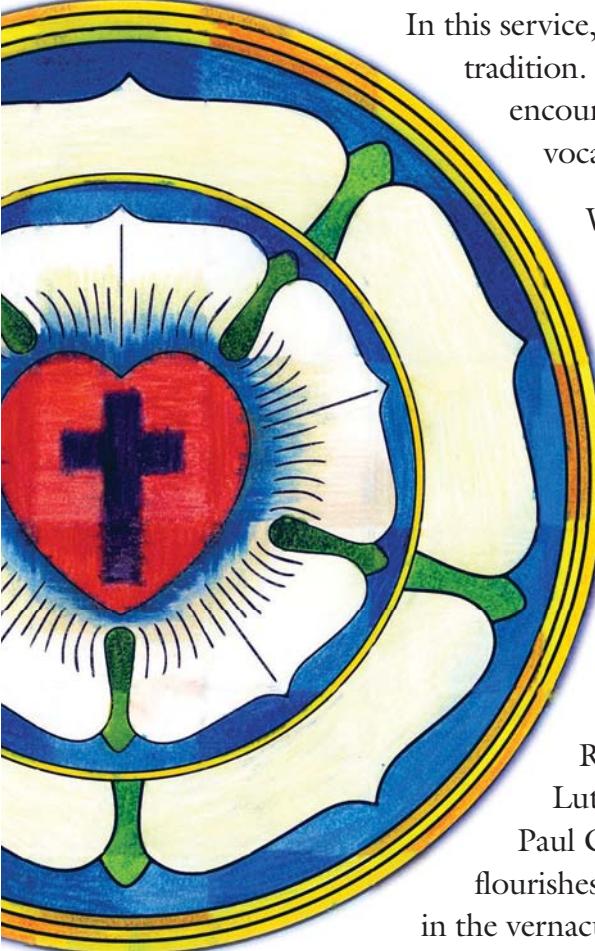

Without exception, the foundation of each of my father's sermons was a Bible passage. After unpacking the context and meaning of the passage, he then asked the same question Martin Luther asked, "what does this mean for us today?" As we celebrate the birth of Jesus and the ongoing reformation of the Church, I invite you to pause and consider what the nativity means for us at this moment in history. Hopefully you leave inspired by God's grace and confident in the knowledge that we are saved so that we may live abundantly to love God and serve our neighbor.

LIFE ABUNDANT

A Celebration of Christmas during the 500th year of the Reformation

We gather in this beautiful, holy space—Christ Chapel—to celebrate the wondrous birth of Jesus Christ, God Among Us. In Christ, we are made free to live abundantly, so that we may love God and serve our neighbor. We commemorate the spark of renewal that Martin Luther ignited 500 years ago. Luther called us to remember that through the gift of God incarnate, made known to us through the humble birth of a baby in Bethlehem, we are justified and free.

In this service, we immerse ourselves in the rich heritage of the Lutheran tradition. Foremost we are here in community to worship. We sing together, encounter the Word, pray for one another, and leave reminded of our vocational calling to serve one another.

We partake in a rich feast of music, poetry, art and dance that enriches our encounter with the mystery of the nativity. Luther loved all the arts, but appreciated music most for its power to place God's Word deep in our hearts. The treasury of music connected to the Lutheran movement is vast. One key part is the chorale, and in our service, we hear two chorales by Luther himself—From Heaven Above and Savior of the Nations, Come.

Music by Praetorius, Bach, and F. Melius Christiansen is part of the established treasury. But the Reformation is a continuing movement and new sparks of creativity abound. Central to this service is a commissioned hymn for choir and congregation, God Among Us, by the poet Susan Palo Cherwien and composer Robert Buckley Farlee. This setting follows in a long tradition of Lutheran hymnody, which is represented here in masterful texts by Paul Gerhardt, Philipp Nicolai, and N.F.S. Grundtvig. Poetic expression flourishes in other traditions, as hymnists seek to give their faith expression in the vernacular or in new contexts. Notably, we sing Joy to the World by the prolific English writer Isaac Watts and Christ, Be Our Light by contemporary Roman Catholic composer Bernadette Farrell.

Visually, the Luther Rose is prominent in our celebration. Explanations of this symbol appear throughout the printed program. A running footer in the program shows notable Lutherans who made their faith active in love. As the timeline reaches the present, we see photos of students, alumni, and staff who are living abundantly. This motif continues in the large stained-glass panels that flank the central cross in the chapel. May these images inspire us to rejoice in our freedom to love and serve and to be rejuvenated as we sing in conclusion “O Come, All Ye Faithful.”

reminds us that by God's love we have a vibrant faith in Jesus, who dwelt among us, died on a cross, and in resurrection, gives abundant life.*

Opening Dialogue

FROM HEAVEN ABOVE

Music and text: Martin Luther (1483-1546)

From heav'n above to earth I come to bear good news to ev'ry home!
Glad tidings of great joy I bring to all the world, and gladly sing:

To you this night is born a child of Mary, chosen virgin mild;
this newborn child of lowly birth shall be the joy of all the earth.

Leader

Come, all you faithful, to hear the good news!

All

In Christ, we are free to live abundantly.

Leader

Come, all you faithful, to witness the gift of love!

All

In Christ, we are free to serve our neighbor.

Leader

Come, all you faithful, to find peace in God's Word!

All

In Christ, we are free to love God.

Leader

Come, all you faithful, to sing your praise!

All

In Christ, we see God among us.

LO, HOW A ROSE E'ER BLOOMING

Music: Michael Praetorius (1571-1621)

Arr. Jan Sandström

Text: Traditional German

Lo, how a Rose ever blooming
From tender stem hath Sprung!
Of Jesse's lineage coming,
As men of old have sung.
It came a floweret bright,
Amid the cold of winter,
When half spent was the night.

The white rose shows the joy, peace, and comfort of our faith, which we receive gladly through the help of the Holy Spirit.

AVE MARIS STELLA

Sung in Latin

Ave, maris stella,
Dei mater alma,
Atque semper Virgo
Felix caeli porta!

Sumens illud Ave
Gabrielis ore,
Funda nos in pace,
Mutans Evaе nomen.

Solve vincla reis,
Profer lumen caecis,
Mala nostra pelle,
Bona cuncta posce.

Monstra te esse matrem,
Sumat per te preces,
Qui pro nobis natus
Tulit esse tuus.

Virgo singularis,
Inter omnes mitis,
Nos culpis solutos,
Mites fac et castos.

Vitam praesta puram,
Iter para tutum,
Ut videntes Jesum,
Semper collaetemur.

Sit laus Deo Patri,
Summo Christo decus,
Spiritui Sancto,
Tribus honor unus. Amen.

Ave gratia plena, dominus tecum,
Benedicta tu in mulieribus!

Music: Trond Kverno (b. 1945)

Text: St. Bernard of Clairvaux

*Hail, Star of the Sea,
Loving Mother of God,
And Virgin immortal,
Heaven's blissful portal!*

*Receiving that "Ave"
From the mouth of Gabriel,
Reversing the name of "Eva"
Establish us in peace.*

*Break the chains of sinners,
Bring light to the blind,
Drive away our evils,
And ask for all good things.*

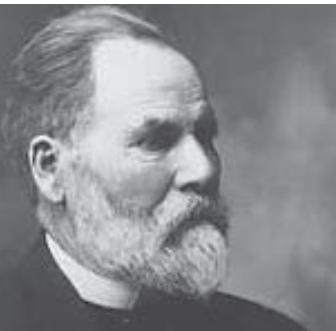

*Show thyself to be a mother,
That, through thee, He may accept our prayers,
He who, born for us,
Chose to be your Son.*

*O incomparable Virgin,
Meek above all others,
Make us, freed from our faults,
Meek and chaste.*

*Keep our life pure,
Make our journey safe,
So that, seeing Jesus,
We may rejoice together forever.*

*Let there be praise to God the Father,
And glory to Christ the most High,
And to the Holy Spirit,
We may rejoice together forever.*

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee Blessed art thou among women!

EXCERPT FROM A SERMON FOR CHRISTMAS DAY FROM HIS WARTBURG POSTIL 1521-1522

Martin Luther

WHAT STRANGERS ARE THESE?

Music and Text: Scottish Folk Song
Arr. Daniel Forrest

What strangers are these that wander through the town?
Hush, 'tis Joseph and weary Mary.
And what does he seek so hopeless and in vain?
He is seeking shelter for Mary.
For she is the blest and chosen of the Lord,
Who will bear to us a goodly King.
And who is this King of whom ye proudly sing?
Know ye not the Christ, Jesus the Savior?

What wee child is this that in a manger lies?
Hush, 'tis Jesus Christ, Son of Mary.
Say what fair maid is this whose joy is mixed with awe?
O 'tis Mary, mother Jesus.
O these are the shepherds and these the magi kings
Who have brought Him their gifts of gold and myrrh.
But why kneel in homage here before a babe?
They adore their King, Jesus the Savior.

Who are these that march from death unto life?
These are they who love Jesus the Christ Child.
And how do they triumph o'er the gates of hell?
Through the grace of Him, Jesus the Savior.
He is born to redeem mankind from sin and strife,
To bring peace, joy, love and brotherhood.
O where shall I find Him? Where shall I seek?
He is here and now, Jesus your Savior.

WHILE SHEPHERDS WATCHED THEIR FLOCKS

Music: Craig Courtney (b. 1948)

Text: Nahum Tate

While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
All seated on the ground,
The angel of the Lord came down,
And glory shown around.

“Fear not” said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind;
“Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.

“To you in David’s town this day
Is born of David’s line,
The Savior, who is Christ the Lord,
And this shall be the sign:

“The heavenly Babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All meanly wrapt in swathing bands
And in a manger laid.

“All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace:
Good will henceforth from heav’n to earth
Begin and never cease.”

WAKE, AWAKE, FOR NIGHT IS FLYING

Music: F. Melius Christiansen (1871-1955)

Text: Philipp Nicolai

Wake, awake, for night is flying:
The watchmen on the heights are crying,
Awake, Jerusalem, arise!

Midnight's solemn hour is tolling,
His chariot wheels are nearer rolling;
Prepare ye virgins wise.

Rise up; with willing feet,
Go forth, the Bride-groom meet,
Hallelujah!

Bear through the night your well-trim'd light,
Speed forth to join the marriage rite.

Hear Thy praise, O Lord, ascending
From tongues of men and angels
Blending with harps and lute and psaltery.

By Thy pearly gates in wonder
We stand, and swell the voice of thunder,
In bursts of choral melody:
Hallelujah!

No vision ever brought, no ear hath ever caught,
Such bliss and joy:
We raise the song, we swell the throng,
To praise thee ages all along.

Friends of Music

Gustavus Friends of Music support, celebrate, and advance student and faculty musicians of the College. Our mission is to ensure the strong tradition of music excellence at Gustavus and provide opportunities for all students who want to express themselves through music. We invite you to become a Friends of Music member. You may do so at gustavus.edu/giving/friendsofmusic.

Acknowledgements

The College is appreciative for all of its benefactors who care for the tradition of Christmas in Christ Chapel by establishing endowments in support of this worship service. These donors include: Randal Schreiner '78 and Cynthia Bittner, Patricia Haugen '70, and Ray '51 and Lorraine Lundquist as well as the Josefson family for the support of the greenery used at Christmas in Christ Chapel and throughout the holiday season through the J.A. and Gladys Josefson Endowment Fund and Ross '73 and Ruth Trimbo '73 Heilman for the commissioned compositions for the Gustavus Choir through the Heilman Sacred Choral Works Endowment Fund. Special thanks to the following donors for their support of the live stream: Lorna Johnson Breiter '63, Thomas and Joyce Deziel, Steve '69 and Betsy Hogberg, Jon and Anita Thomsen Young '77, and Heroic Productions. If you would like more information about how you can include Christmas in Christ Chapel in your philanthropy or estate plans, please contact Thomas Young '88, Vice President for Advancement, by calling 1-800-726-6193 or emailing tyoung3@gustavus.edu.

Christmas in Christ Chapel is Gustavus Adolphus College's community celebration of Jesus' birth. It provides an opportunity for students who participate and students who attend to gain new insights about the feast of the Nativity. In an extended classroom, Christmas in Christ Chapel has academic/educational, liturgical/spiritual, and musical/dramatic components and is a creative work of the unique Gustavus talents and resources.

Many people have given of their time and resources to make Christmas in Christ Chapel a reality. Thank you to the student musicians, conductors, readers, and dancers who present this annual Christmas gift to the College and community, and to the many people who work behind the scenes to create, prepare, and host.

The rights of works reproduced in this program are held by the creators, their estates, or their representatives. Where efforts to contact those who hold the rights were successful, we acknowledge their permission.

Enjoy Christmas in Christ Chapel Again

The Saturday evening service will be live streamed and archived online at gustavus.edu/ccc. Share this with friends and family who were unable to attend. The camera work and production is incredible as evidence in that last year Heroic Productions won a Hermes Award for Christmas in Christ Chapel. Congratulations to the crew for receiving the highest award given for a live stream production.

The 2016 Christmas in Christ Chapel service, Ubuntu Jesu: From the Cradle of Humankind to the Ends of the Earth, is showing now on national public television stations around the country. Among the many listings are Christmas Eve at 10 p.m. and Christmas Day at 8 a.m. on Twin Cities Public Television. Check your local listing for a full schedule.

Deep appreciation is extended to the Paul and Susan Breckner family for underwriting the cost of the public television broadcast.
