Martin Lang

The 2024 Honors Convocation speaker is Martin Lang, associate professor in Communication Studies; Film and Media Studies; and Gender, Women and Sexuality Studies. Lang is the winner of the 2023 Edgar M. Carlson Award for Distinguished Teaching, the Gustavus faculty's highest accolade for teaching excellence.

Lang graduated from Gustavus in 1995 with a double major in English and Speech Communication, and he earned a Masters in Rhetorical Studies and a Ph.D. in Media Studies from the University of Minnesota. He returned to Gustavus to start teaching in 2005. His scholarly work and courses focus on the ways that media contribute to our individual and collective senses of identity, including characteristics like gender, race, socioeconomic class, and sexuality. Many of his courses and research projects are grounded in community-engaged learning and action, including his collaboration with students to create the documentaries Farming Forward and (Mid) West of Somalia. He is a proud first-generation college graduate.
