

Imagining Peace

World PeaceGame

"Imagine...you had the power to change the world!" Well, you do! The World PeaceGame puts you in a position to do so. Find out how by participating in this dynamic simulation workshop at MAYDAY!

MAYDAY! Oratory Contest

New to the MAYDAY! Peace Conference this year is a high school oratory competition. Three rounds of speeches fill the day, with the final afternoon round of orators vying for a $750 first prize.

Resource Center

Representatives from several non-profit, peace-focused organizations will be on hand to help educate attendees on a multitude of social justice and peace issues.

30th annual MAYDAY! Peace Conference

Wednesday, April 28, 2010

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

9:00-11:00 a.m.	REGISTRATION Linner Lounge, Johnson Student Union
10:00 a.m.	WELCOMING SERVICE Christ Chapel
	Keynote Address "The Peace Imperative: Our Great Challenge and Opportunity to Create a More Peaceful World"
	Jack Nelson-Pallmeyer , associate professor of justice and peace studies and nationally recognized teacher, writer, and activist committed to nonviolent social change, University of St. Thomas, St. Paul
11:45 a.m.-1:15 p.m.	BREAK RESOURCE CENTER OPEN MAYDAY! ORATORY CONTEST Preliminary Round
1:30 p.m.-3:00 p.m.	WORLD PEACEGAME —Simulation Workshop Facilitator: Medard Gabel , BigPictureSmallWorld, Inc. Alumni Hall, Johnson Student Union
3:30 p.m.-4:15 p.m.	MAYDAY! ORATORY CONTEST Final Round "How Would You Create, Nurture, and Preserve Peace in Your Community?" Alumni Hall, Johnson Student Union
4:30 p.m.	CLOSING RECEPTION

All events are open to the public without charge.

For more information:

Office of Marketing and Communication
Gustavus Adolphus College
St. Peter, Minnesota
507-933-7520
marketing@gustavus.edu
gustavus.edu/events/mayday/