Health and Exercise Science: Human Anatomy and Physiology

Gustavus Adolphus College invites applications for a multi-year position of Adjunct Professor of Human Anatomy and Physiology in the Department of Health and Exercise Science to begin September 1, 2011.

We seek candidates who have an earned doctorate, but will consider candidates who have completed the Master’s Degree. The successful candidate should have prior teaching/lab coordination experience. We encourage candidates to describe their experience with a variety of teaching methods and curricular perspectives.

Primary responsibilities will include teaching Human Anatomy and Physiology lectures and labs, and coordinating laboratory experiences. A commitment to teaching and advising is essential.

To apply, send letter of application, curriculum vitae, statements of teaching philosophy, transcripts (photocopies acceptable), and three letters of professional recommendation to:
