

World citizens all

A number of Gustavus faculty members have been invited to participate in international conferences in recent months. Below is a list of reported activities going back to the summer of 2003:

Laura Behling, English, presented "Theorizing Fragmentation of the Twentieth-Century Body" at the Institute for Historical Research at the University of London, England, in July 2003; she also presented "Sum/Some of Its Parts: The Artificiality of the Historical and Modern Body" at the Bodies, Theories, Cultures in the Post-Millennial Era Conference held on October 14–17, 2004, at the University of Thessaloniki, Greece.

Leila Brammer, communication studies, was invited to attend the Oxford Roundtable, Oxford, England, in June 2003 to participate in discussions on women's rights and discrimination.

Eric Carlson, history, presented "Teaching Elizabethan Tudor with Movies" at the Sixteenth Century Conference in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, on October 28–31, 2004.

Barbara Fister, library, presented "Information Literacy and the Marketplace of Anxieties: interdisciplinary approaches for the evaluation of sources" at the Ontario Library Association Conference held February 3–5, 2005, in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

Judy Gardner, nursing, presented her research on "Significant Nursing Interventions for Bereaved Parents following Perinatal Loss" to the Shiga Prefecture Midwives Association on April 3, 2004, in Otsu, Japan, and to students and faculty of the St. Luke's Hospital Graduate School of Nursing on April 5, in Tokyo.

Anne-Marie Gronhovd, modern languages, literatures, and cultures, presented "Albert Camus and Hélène Cixous Caught in the Metaphor of Algeria" at the Ninth International Conference of the International Society for the Study of European Ideas, held Aug. 2–7, 2004, at the University of Navarra, Pamplona, Spain.

Doug Huff, philosophy, presented "Wittgenstein and the Futility of Skeptical Doubt" at the World Congress of Philosophy, held Aug. 10–17, 2003, in Istanbul, Turkey.

Jeff Jeremiason, chemistry and environmental studies, presented "The Influence of the Gas Phase on Aquatic Particle PAH Concentrations in Lakes of Variable Trophic Condition" at the meeting of the International Association for Great Lakes Research on May 29–28, 2004, in Waterloo, Ontario, Canada.

Pam Kittelson, biology, presented "Genetic differentiation of life-history traits in the perennial shrub Lupinus arboreus: influence of gene flow and selection," while at the Donana Biological Station, Seville, Spain, during January Term 2005.

Michael Klimesh, economics and management, presented "Martin Bouska—Pioneer Czech Educator (1854–1866) and His 1854 Log Cabin School" at the World Congress of the Czechoslovak Society of Arts and Sciences held June 27–July 3, 2004, in Olomouc, Czech Republic.

Mark Lammers, research professor in music, was invited to present a paper at the World Association of Symphonic Band Ensembles (WASBE) Conference on July 1, 2003, in Jonkoping, Sweden, where WASBE officials also sought his permission to post his catalogue, "Nordic Instrumental Music for Colleges and Universities," on the association's website.

Svetlana Madzar, economics and management, presented "Subordinates' information inquiry in uncertain times: A cross-cultural, multilevel consideration of leadership effect" at the European Academy of Management's annual meeting in May 2004 in St. Andrews, Scotland.

Scott Newstok, English, presented "Orson Welles' Touch of Evil: Shakespeare? European? Politics?" at the Shakespeare and European Politics International Conference held December 4–7, 2003, in Utrecht, the Netherlands.

Brian O'Brien, chemistry, presented a paper titled "Phthaloylphosphide as a Reagent for Preparation of Fluorinated Phosphorus Compounds" at the 16th International Conference on Phosphorus Chemistry, held July 4–9, 2004, in Birmingham, England.

Carolyn O'Grady, education, was invited to attend the Oxford Roundtable, Oxford, England, in March 2004 to participate in discussions about the educational needs of disadvantaged children.

Toshiyuki Sakuragi, Japanese studies, presented "Application of Analysis of Covariance for Cross-cultural Communication Research" at the annual Convention of the Communication Association of Japan, held June 19–21, 2004, in Tokyo.

Bronwen Wickiser, classics, presented "Plague, Politics, and the Peloponnesian War: The Arrival of Askelepios in Athens in 420–19 BCE" at the Institute of Classical Archaeology, Aarhus, Denmark, on January 9–10, 2004.

Linnea Wren, art history, presented "Contemporary Icons in the Iconoclastic Age of AIDS" at the Arts and Christian Enquiry Conference held July 7–14, 2003, in St. Petersburg, Russia. ☐