ABSTRACT:

The International Students Organization collection consists of one yearbook from 1989 and one information letter about a planned event in 1985. The yearbook contains copied black-and-white images of the organization's members taking part in various activities. In addition, the publication provides a narrative of events that took place during the 1988-89 academic year. Prior to becoming the International Students Organization (ISO), the group was called the Gustavus Cosmopolitan Club. The organization has since been renamed the International Cultures Club.
