ABSTRACT:

The Gustavus Adolphus Temperance League collection consists of the organization's constitution, minutes, financial records, and membership lists from 1901-1911. Prior to the spring of 1907, the Temperance League was known as the Temperance Association. Minutes for the organization continued to list the organization as the Association although a constitution from 1907 formalized the group as the Temperance League. Members voted to disband during November 1911 while simultaneously calling for the creation of a new constitution.
