ABSTRACT:

The Epsilon Pi Alpha collection consists of minutes, programs, member surveys, constitutions, correspondence, pledge and membership lists, event information, and a group history documenting the organization at Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minnesota. Member surveys provide a wealth of information about active and former members including details about interests, careers, and pledge dates. The Gustavus branch of this social fraternity formed during October 1928. Folders are organized alphabetically.

HISTORICAL NOTE:

The Gustavus branch of Epsilon Pi Alpha formed on 10 October 1928. Members known as "Eppies" took part in a number of activities. In past years, the group prided itself on doing the following: beer busts, parties, an autumn pig roast and banquet, UNICEF collection, trips to North Stars games and the Shrine Circus with local kids, rush parties, spring canoe trips and steak frys, Campus Chest activities, participation in I.M.s, taking a summer canoe trip, and THETAS. Epsilon Pi Alpha was recognized as Fraternity of the Year at Gustavus during the 2006-07 academic year. The group remained active as of February 2009.

Information obtained from the collection and the organization's webpage at <http://gustavus.edu/orgs/greeks/eppies/home.html>.
