Academic Computing Department. Collection of the Academic Computing Department, 1988-2000. GACA Collection 360. 1 flat box.

ABSTRACT:

The Academic Computing Department collection contains memos, network maps, vendor correspondence, software instructions, and newsletters. Also included is a manual card punching tool. The Academic Computing Department began in the 1980s and provided computing services for faculty and students, along with public computing labs. When Gustavus Technology Services (GTS) was created circa 2005, Academic Computing was integrated into the new department.
