GACA Collection 362

ABSTRACT:
The Career Center collection contains surveys, reports, and guides. These include follow up surveys with graduates about their jobs, annual placement reports showing how well students are placed in the careers of their academic majors, and “Major Decisions at Gustavus Adolphus College,” an advising guide to picking a major that was written with a grant from the Northwest Area Foundation. The Career Center became a part of the Center for Servant Leadership when it was created in 2011.
