ABSTRACT:

The Health and Exercise Science collection contains annual reports, and program proposals for the athletic training undergraduate education program at Gustavus Adolphus College. It also includes self-study reports, accreditation information, and curriculum information for the athletic training program. The collection also contains a 1942 report on the department, a 1979 survey on athletic facilities, and 1983-84 course listings.

HISTORICAL NOTE:

The Physical Education Department was established in 1914. In 1913, there was only a physical education requirement. The department has had numerous name changes, including Physical Education and Health, Health and Physical Education, and Physical Education, Health, and Athletics. In 1994, the department name changed to its current name, Health and Exercise Science. In 1973, the department offered the first athletic training course and in 1983 athletic training became a major.
