ABSTRACT:

The Senior Week collection contains planning and publicity materials for Senior Week at Gustavus Adolphus College. Senior Week takes place during the time between final exams and commencement. It is intended only for graduating senior students and consists of many different activities and events both on and off campus. Activities include barbeques, a trip to an amusement park, an outing to a Minnesota Twins baseball game, spa day, the President's Banquet, and at the end of the week, Baccalaureate Service and Commencement.
