ABSTRACT:

The Garrett Paul collection contains a typed manuscript of a paper Paul translated, along with a flyer, the calendar announcement, and a DVD video recording of Paul’s final public lecture at Gustavus Adolphus College. The translated paper was published in Paul Tillich on Creativity edited by Jacquelyn K. Kegley, 1989. In his lecture, Gustavus Professor of Religion, Garrett Paul addresses the collapse of dualism and its significance for the contemporary Philosophy of Religions and Philosophical Theology. Responses to the lecture are given by Gustavus Religion Professor John Cha and St. Olaf Associate Professor of Religion Gregory Walter.
