ABSTRACT:

The Root collection contains minutes, constitution, mission statement, administrative materials, discussion topics, and tele-Pictionary games from group meetings. The Root was a student organization at Gustavus Adolphus College that focused on discussing issues in an inclusive, safe, and open-minded environment.

ORGANIZATION NOTE:

“The purpose of The Root is to provide the Gustavus community with an inclusive, safe, and open-minded environment where any question, idea, or topic can be presented to be discussed with peers. It is a community open to anyone, and the focus is on bringing deeper questions out in a place where they will be received with respect, thought about, and discussed holistically. Built on the belief that all can add truth, value, and insight to any question, The Root strives to be a completely welcoming environment. The Root’s goal is to achieve a meaningful conversation that presents and inspires powerful pondering.”
