LCA Collection 78

Montana Mission District, Augustana Synod, 1894-1935. LCA Collection 78. ½ Hollinger box and 1 small box.

ABSTRACT:

The Montana Home Mission District collection contains writings about the history of the district, pastors, and churches, the district's Luther League, and a slide presentation about the district and local congregations. Histories were written by Rev. Emeroy Johnson, who served parishes in Missoula, Montana from 1928-36. The slides consist of 70 lantern slides showing members of local congregations and tourist locations in western Montana during the early 1930s.

ORGANIZATIONAL NOTE:

The Montana District was one of many home mission districts in the Augustana Synod. These mission districts usually existed in parts of the United States that did not have a very large population of ethnic Swedes, so it was not considered large enough to constitute a conference. Pastors were sent to these home mission districts to try and set up congregations and organize churches, mostly to those already identifying as Lutherans or as Swedish Americans.
