Later, the family moved to North Branch, Minnesota. Melvin graduated from Gustavus Adolphus College in 1934 and from Augustana Seminary in 1937. He was first ordained to serve at Bethany Lutheran Church in Des Moines, Iowa, but in 1940, he moved to Arlington Hills, St. Paul and served until 1955, doubling the congregation's membership. Dr. Hammarberg was then the Executive Director of World Missions, Augustana Lutheran Church from 1955-61, pastor for Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, St. Paul, 1961-65, and then President of the Minnesota Synod, Lutheran Church in America, from 1965-76.

During his time in the Minnesota Synod, he served as President of the Board of Youth Activities, Augustana Church, 1945-54; delegate to Luther World Assembly, 1952; member of the Board of Trustees, Gustavus Adolphus College; 1945-54 and 1961-76. From 1952-54 he was the President of St. Paul Council of Churches and of the Minnesota Council of Churches from 1970-72, along with various other positions of responsibility. He received a D.D. degree from Augustana Theological Seminary in 1952 and a Litt. D. degree from Gustavus Adolphus College in 1972. He visited Latin America, Africa, and the Far East, as well as many other countries for his missions.
