ABSTRACT:

The André Malraux Correspondence collection contains letters sent to Florence Fredrickson from 1947-1965. Malraux was a French novelist, French Minister of Information and France's first Minister of Cultural Affairs. Fredrickson was a professor of English and French at Gustavus Adolphus College from the 1920s-1960s. Also included is a letter to Fredrickson from former First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt. The majority of this collection is in French.
