Bauman Family. Correspondence of J.A., Lizzie, and Ida Bauman, 1881-1961. CAMC Collection 37. 10 Folders.

ABSTRACT:

The Bauman Family collection consists primarily of correspondence to and from J.A. and Lizzie Bauman from 1881-1907. It also contains correspondence from Ida Bauman from 1958-61 concerning her parents. J.A. Bauman was a professor of German, Latin, English, Elocution, Education, and Arithmetic at Gustavus Adolphus College from 1881-85. His wife, Lizzie Bauman, was a professor of English, Geography, Algebra, Physiology, Penmanship, and Drawing at Gustavus from 1881-83. Ida Bauman was their daughter. In 1882, the Baumans donated the College Bell, located in the bell tower of Old Main.

SCOPE AND SEQUENCE:

The Bauman Family collection consists of three series: J.A. Bauman, Lizzie Bauman, and Ida Bauman. Arrangement within each is generally chronological.

J.A. Bauman, 1881-1894

This series contains primarily correspondence to and from J.A. Bauman. Included are a speech he gave on Memorial Day in 1884 and receipts documenting the donation of the college bell.

Lizzie Bauman, 1881-1907

This series contains correspondence to and from Lizzie Bauman. Most of the correspondence was to family members.

Ida Bauman, 1958-1961

This series contains correspondence from Ida Bauman documenting her visit to St. Peter in 1958, and a newspaper article written about her visit. There is also correspondence from 1960-61, written to the college archivist, Florence Peterson, with handwritten excerpts from some of her parents' letters about St. Peter and Gustavus.
