How are you thinking about your philosophy major now?

GUSTAVUS PHILOSOPHY ALUMNI EVENT
SATURDAY, APRIL 16 | GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS COLLEGE
Event Schedule

8:30 a.m.  Muffins, hot drinks, nametags and mingling. Old Main

9:00  Remembrances of George Georgacarakos, by Jeff Lunde ’86, and Victor Samelian ’86 (read by Doug Huff)

9:30  Simultaneous sessions 1A and 1B, Old Main lower level
   IA: Room 04
   2. Christine Eilertson Bronson, ’94: “Gravity”
   6. Harvey Winje, ’62: “They Don’t Make Them Like They Used To”
   IB: Room 06
   1. Brandon Gillette, ’05: “Professional Philosophy”
   2. Kate Goodpaster, ’09: “Philosophers at Work”
   3. Chris Feider, ’80: “Philosophers and EQ”
   5. Kimberlee Kautzer, ’05: “Reflections of an Unexpected Soldier”
   6. Andy Twiton, ’08: “Philosophy as Life-Cherishing Practice”

11:15  “Stories from a Philosophical Life,” Professor Deane Curtin, Heritage Room, Campus Center

12 p.m.  Lunch, Heritage Room, Campus Center
   During the lunch break, stop in the bookstore to see a special exhibit of “Philosophy? What for?” books.
1:30 Simultaneous sessions 2A and 2B, Old Main lower level
IIA: Room 04
2. Grant Wacker, ’83: “I Guess It All Started with the Philosophy Major!”
5. John Biewen, ’83: “Philosophy in Disguise”

IIB: Room 06
1. Erica Stonestreet, ’00: “Philosophy Begins With Nothing”
2. Harry Youngvorst, ’10: “How I’m Thinking About My Major”
5. Adam Larson, ’14

3:15 “The Importance of Beauty to the Ontological Proof for the Existence of God,” Professor Douglas Huff, Three Crowns Room, Campus Center

4:00 Farewell reception, Three Crowns Room, Campus Center

This Philosophy Department alumni event is being supported by a generous donation from Helen Onufrak (a member of the class of 1980 who was not a philosophy major, but was a friend of philosophy majors) and an anonymous donor.