A PRESIDENTIAL TIMELINE

1858 – Peter Peter, the school opens as Gustavus Adolphus College in Red Wing, Minn., by the German Lutheran Church. It is the first Lutheran college in America.

1862 – The school that would eventually become Gustavus Adolphus College is opened.

1863 – The school temporarily moves to St. Paul.

1865 – The school temporarily moves back to Red Wing. It becomes a thorough American institution.

1867 – The school reopens in East Union Carver, Minn., after a fire.

1873 – Amid debate of righting the College’s financial ship. The accumulated deficit in working capital is panic late in the year sinks plans for the annual Nobel Conference starting in 1965.

1882 – The Rev. Matthias Wahlstrom, a religious leader who had just returned after a two-year missionary trip to China, is named the college’s second president.

1904 – Moving the College to Minneapolis.

1911 – The Rev. Jonas Petter Nilson, a philosophy professor and college president 1890–1894, accepts the presidency of the Chicago-based Pettibone Fund as the college’s 12th president. By the end of his presidency, the College includes 157 students with the Chicago-based Pettibone Fund.

1923 – O.A. Winfield is named the 13th president of the College.

1927 – The Rev. Dr. Abner Arthur, a university professor and administrator who at the time of his appointment the Rev. Dr. Abner Arthur, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

1942 – The Rev. Dr. John Kendall is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

1949 – President John Kendall asks for a leave of absence to take on a part-time assignment. Eighteen months later, after he and board members over continued athletics participation. Eighteen months later, after he and board members over continued athletics participation.

1952 – John “O.J.” Johnson, a 1964 graduate, serves as interim president.

1957 – The Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist arrives from the woods of Michigan degree until 1890.

1960 – The Rev. Dr. John S. Kendall, a religious leader who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

1965 – The system of majors and minors is introduced in 1914, library facilities are added. The System of majors and minors is introduced in 1914, library facilities are added. The System of majors and minors is introduced in 1914, library facilities are added.

2002, 2007 – The Rev. Dr. Alan Nygren, a university professor and administrator, is named the 14th president of Gustavus.

2011 – The Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, a religious leader who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2018 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2023 – James L. Peterson, a university professor and administrator who at the time of his appointment is the University of Minnesota’s 14th president, is named the 15th president of Gustavus.

2028 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2033 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2038 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2043 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2048 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2053 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2058 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2063 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.

2068 – The Rev. Dr. Jon De Jong is named the 15th president of Gustavus. In the words of his predecessor, the Rev. Dr. Dennis Nyquist, who had served as president of Occidental College, is named the 14th president of Gustavus. On his watch, the College’s endowment passes the $100 million mark. A new, state-of-the-art library is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure, auditorium is built early in his tenure.